Cole Ando Makes SBP a Tradition

Student Body President for 1969-70 was Cole Ando. Curt Ando, an older brother of Cole's, was president 1962-63.

Student Council was very active, though much of what was attempted or accomplished may not be appreciated at present. Earth Day, April 22, was brought into the open at Powell High School through the council. Many regulations were reviewed by the council, with some being taken to the School Board for possible adaption for the present. No action was taken. One of the student parking lots was improved through the joint efforts of the council and the office of Asst. Supt. of Schools, R. R. Robertson.

On Earth Day Mr. McCrary's Drivers Education classes learned the many safety factors to consider when bicycle riding.

Environment Concerns Student Council

The council sponsored a slogan contest to choose an anti-pollution phrase to be put on bumper stickers. Peggy Sandoval won a garbage can with the pictured slogan. Cole Ando, Student Body President, shows the newly arrived stickers. Vicki Bell contemplates the problems of our environment amid the mass of bicycles ridden to school on Earth Day.

Pep Club Produces Great School Spirit

"We've got the spirit that a great school needs" The PHS Pep Club provides the student body with spirit-building projects throughout the year. The Pep Club, headed by Pres. Laurie Johnson, held skits and contests, served at banquets, and promoted school spirit to its fullest. Athletes, their mothers, cheerleaders, faculty members, and the student body aided the club in presenting skits for promotion of spirit for school athletic activities.

For the first pep assembly, Laurie Johnson presented Coaches Lane and Gillette who introduced the cross country and football teams while Mr. Schmidt made sure everything stayed in line.

This beauty contest was held for the state swimming pep assembly. The participants were Craig Whitlock, Mike Krivanec, Perry Fisher, Jeff Taggart, Mike Meeker, and Greg Taggart. The third beauty from the right won.

Mrs. Whitlock, Mrs. Bloom, and Mrs. Burnett added to assembly entertainment. Said Mrs. Burnett, "Gary always was a great kicker, even before he was born."

Luscious Lyle Marhenke displays the sex appeal that won the way to Quasimodo's heart.

At the Pep Club Banquet, awards were given to the outstanding Pep Club members of each class. Freshman Annette Hadden, Sophomore Jill McMillan, Junior Janet Cox, and Senior Debbie Walker. The Outstanding Member of the Year is Debbie Jacobson.

The senior lettermen sang "All You Need Is Love" while Quasimodo (Rex Bennett) tried to persuade Luscious Lyle onto the couch with him. However, when Judy Kranz, attired in bathing suit, entered the scene, Quasimodo abandoned Luscious to pursue his other love.

Please Keep Hands Off The Bulletin Boards

The girls volunteered to put up bulletin boards, one for each sport, every week. They stayed after school, came before school, and put in study-hall time. The boards were original and clever and really added something to the halls.

The Panther Paws: front row, Seniors Nancy Bolmeier, Judy Kranz, Gayle Partridge, Lori Liner; row two, Juniors Linda Guthrie, Jerrilynn Richards, Linda Brown, Linda Fisher, Myrna Miller, row three, Sophomores Donna Dixon, Carol Rood, Susan Christensen, Vicki McGary, Tomi Stahn, Karen Hildreth, and Janice Kolb. Captain was Nancy Bolmeier and co-captain was Jerrilynn Richards. Mrs. Allyn sponsored the Paws.

They performed at home basketball games during half-time. For their final the girls did a pom-poon routine entitled "Hey Little Girl."

French and Latin Clubs Stimulate Language Awareness

French Club activities included caroling and their annual French breakfast. They also raised money for The Lisa Ray Fund. Odile Clause joined the faculty second semester and became the French Club sponsor. She is a native of Le Havre, France.

The highlight was the annual Spring orgy. Original Latin recipes were used and everyone dressed in authentic costume. Latin Club, sponsored by Evelyn Petty, also observed National Latin Week.

New members wait eagerly for their marching orders.

The Future Nurses scheduled their initiation of new members in September. A parade down main street with assorted hats and homemade instruments was the event which highlighted a chili supper.

The yearly program included a Bake Sale in February, and a trip to Sheridan, where the girls toured the Girl's School.

Raindrops, flowers and rainbows decorated the banquet for installation of new officers.

Leader, Marcia Collar prepares to lead the masquerade on their journey down the street.

A Rising Generation

Terri Brandt, Dixie Criswell, Janet Stolts and Jill McMillan practice their nursing techniques on patient Marcia Collar. They wear the cute striped uniforms while on duty.

Jill Thompson and Judy Williams are instructed by Vice-President Brenda Lemoine on how to lead with the big brass drum.

Juli Miller, Christina Mallette, Sharon Sanders, Eileen Kopriva, Juanita Sapp, Robin Clabaugh, and Marilyn Hiller discuss final plans for the FTA Tea.

Gilbert Cordova reports on speakers at the general meetings from Convention.

FTA members, teachers, and former students of Mrs. Edmonds enjoy the Teacher of the Year Breakfast.

Michele Mahoney tells of the tours around Casper during Convention.

Only One Way — For the FTA —

Take a young vigorous guy like Coach Lane with high ideals, exhibit those ideals in the form of a goony looking bird, and the result is the most rollicking bunch of nuts ever to become a team; especially a team of such merit.

The qualities of leadership are virtues to be proud of and we are proud of Jerry Lane, "The Man."

Powell Has Another Good Year with the Pigskin

The season started August 11 on Powell grass and ended October 31 on Cody grass. Coach Gillette had to do some rebuilding. By the time the first game rolled around, Powell had a young team put together and went on to posting a 6-3 season. Powell continued its mastery over Cody by beating the Broncs 27-14. This is the fifth straight time Powell has beaten the rival town in the last five years.

Hard work paid off for everyone. Ben Johnson received the Lee Blocking Trophy for his work on the line as offensive center. Junior wingback Perry Fisher was chosen all-conference as a defensive halfback and was also a starter on Powell's offensive unit. Senior Gary Burnett was all-conference and was chosen by United Press to the second team all-state as quarterback. Senior fullback Charlie Moore was an all-conference linebacker and fullback and received the Most Valuable Player award for the good job he did in carrying the ball. Senior Rex Bennett was chosen by Wyoming coaches to the first team offense and defense all-state and by United Press for the first team offense all-state. He was all-conference defensive and offensive end as well as receiving the Most Inspirational Award from the team for his enthusiasm.

Sophomore Mike McRann (89) receives a 25 yard pass from Gary Elwood against Lovell. Following are Dan Jackson (42) and Gary Johnson (85).

Gary Burnett (14) picks up 12 yards while Craig Whitlock (44), Rex Bennett (88), and Cal Jacobs (79) provide blocking.

Having a good angle on the ball carrier, Perry Fisher (29) closes in for the tackle.

Season

The Powell basketball team started the year with good experience in the ranks. Coach Bloom fashioned a starting team of five seniors. Jim Reed and Fred Onstine were the guards, Charlie Moore and Gary Burnett were the forwards and Rick Underwood was the center. Senior Rex Bennett, Junior Perry Fisher, and Sophomore Darryl Carmon saw considerable action as the year progressed.

Special honors earned during the year were the first team all-state, Charlie Moore; and Jim Reed, regional tournament team. At the All-Sports Banquet, Rick Underwood received the rebound trophy (247) and Charlie Moore the free-throw trophy (.690%). Powell proved to be one of the better competitive teams in the state.

To The Senior Wrestler

Four years he's worn an invisible veil which shows in the very essence of his manner that he's a wrestler.

How can you tell?

He's the one with desire and guts, about three heartfuls.

He's the one who's dieted until he becomes so dehydrated that the skin on his body chaps and flakes off.

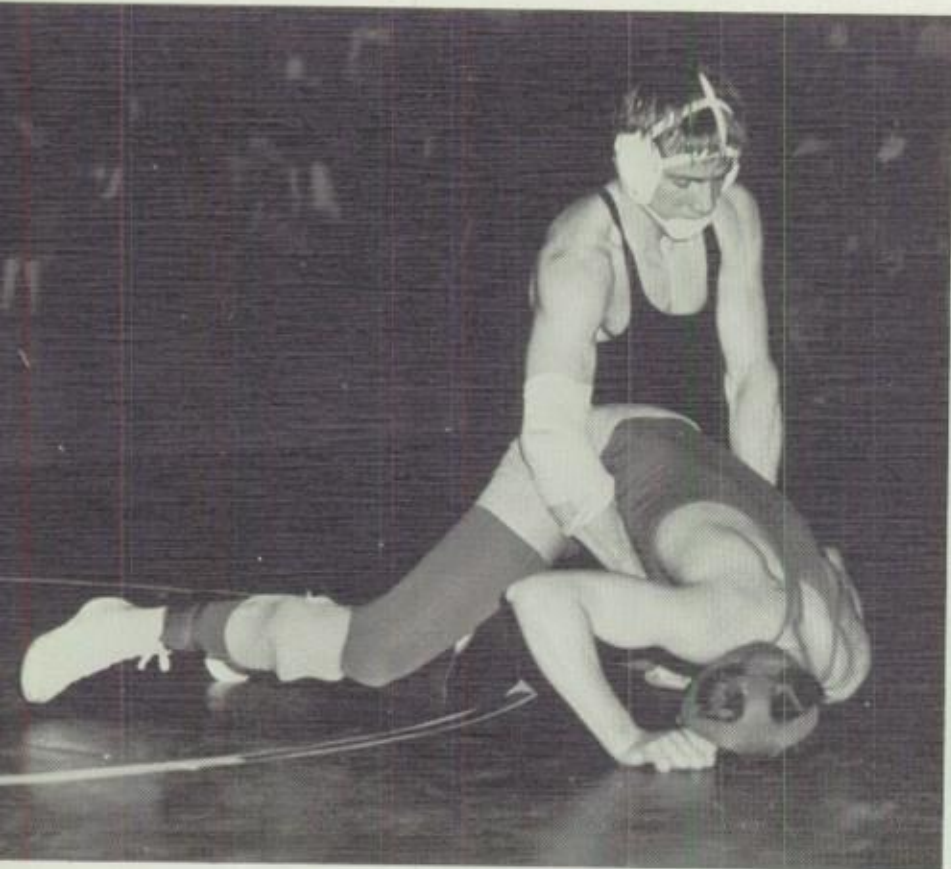

He's the one who punishes his body for three hours every practice until his vision is blurred with tears, and the sobs come uncontrollably as a result of fatigue.

He's the one who uses his body for a weapon, unmercifully torturing himself until his very soul cries for him to quit. But he won't quit. The reason is integrity, dignity, personal honor, and love; a great love for a sport.

He's recognizable for the way he holds his head a little higher; he can look anyone in the eye and say: I've been through hell but I'm a man.

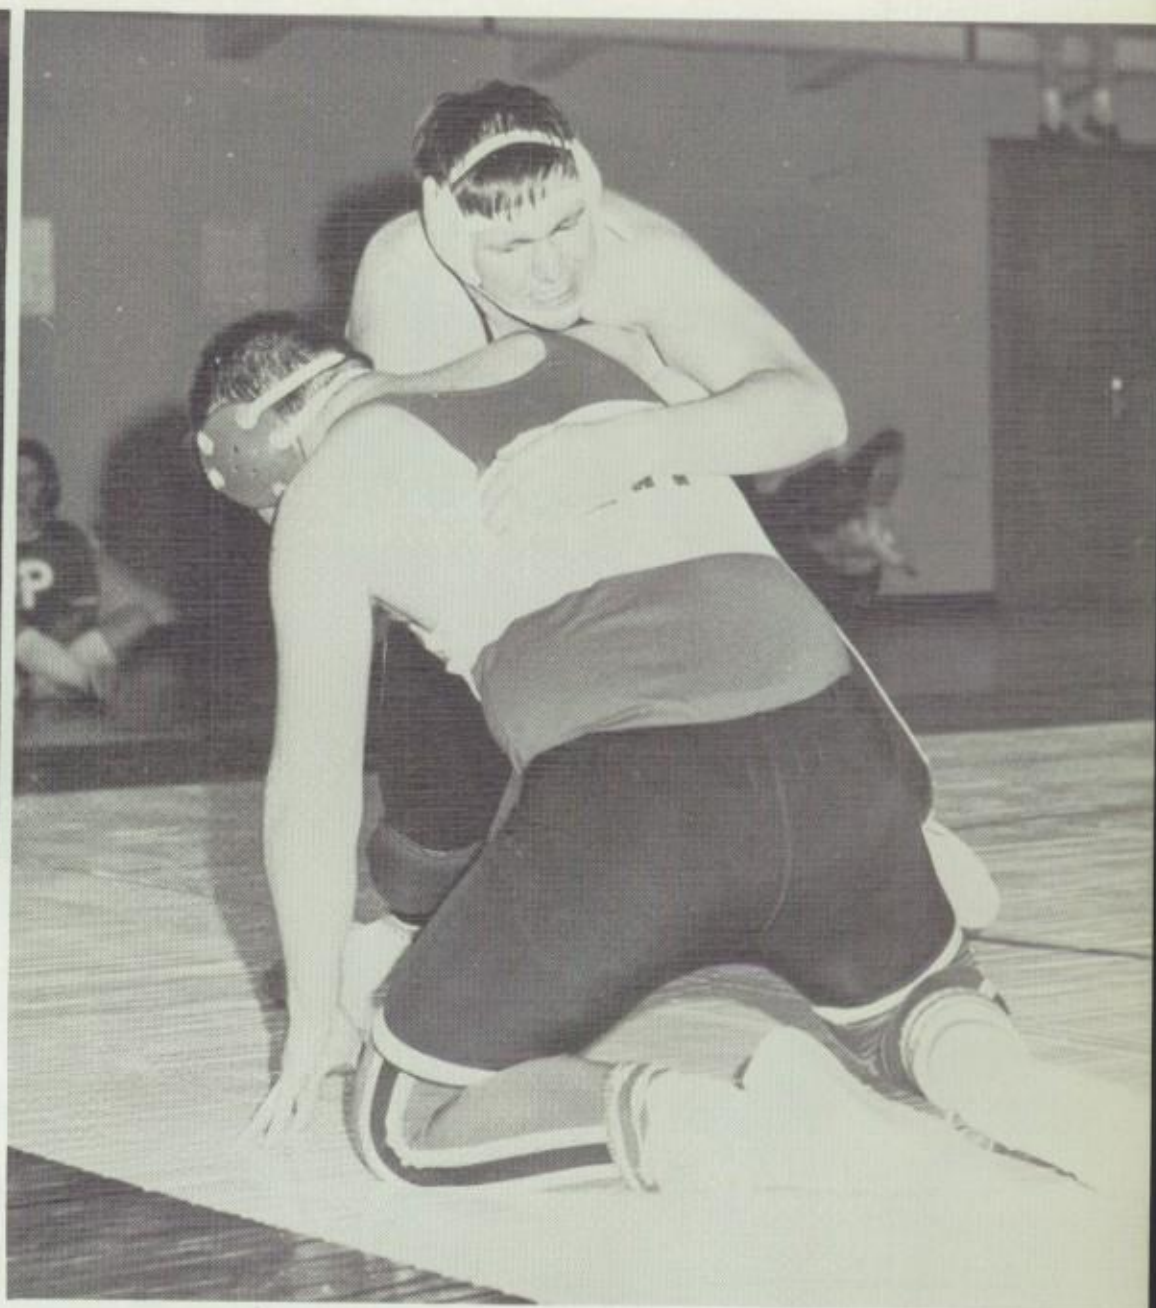

Lyle Marhenke

Ron Kobbe 145 pounds. Career Record: 34 wins and 11 losses.

The Junior Class And Pop Group Present South Pacific

by Rodgers and Hammerstein

Luther Billis, played by Bill Blake, is trying to...uh...he's trying...he's...Bill, what are you trying to do?

The Powell Senior High School Pop Group and Drama Department joined forces for the Junior Class Production of South Pacific.

134 people, under the direction of Nancy Allyn, John Wasden, and Joe Pinney, were involved in South Pacific including the cast, crew, and orchestra. Rehearsals often lasted until midnite and affected the entire school.

The presentations of November 13 and 14 were played to jam-packed auditoriums, standing-room only!

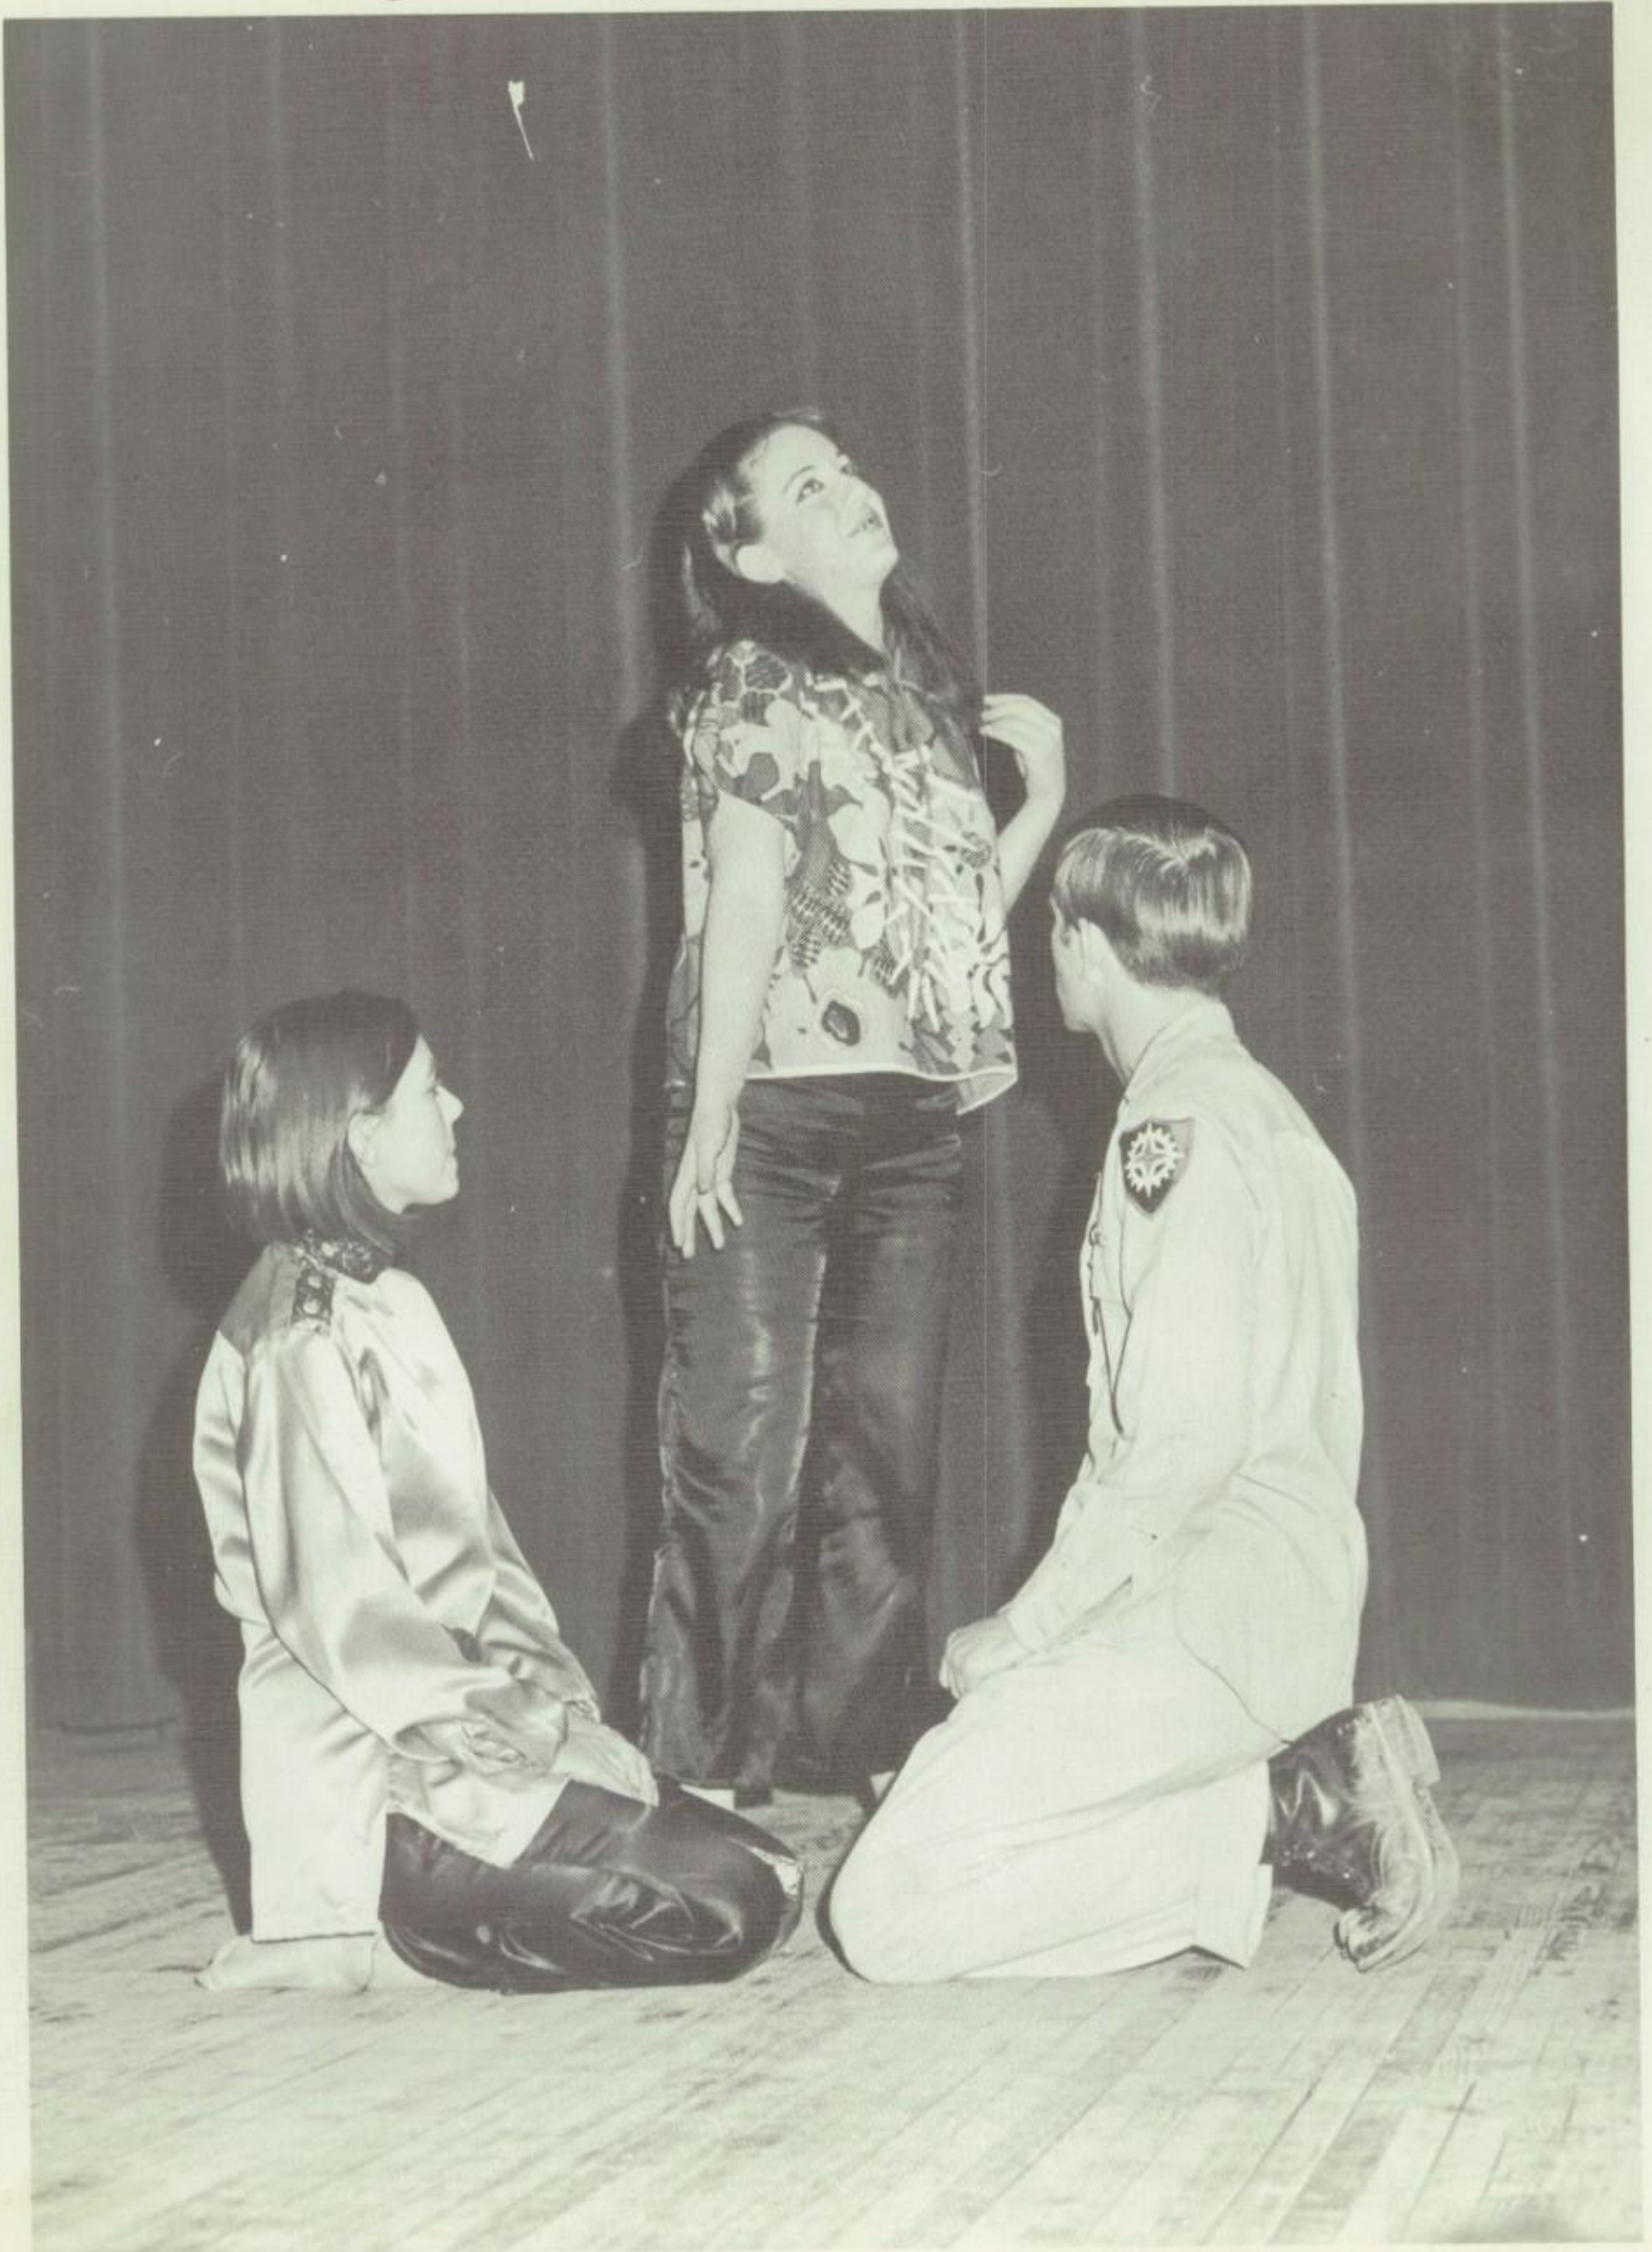

The boys chorus showed near professional finish during the "There Ain't Nothin' Like a Dame" sequence.

Dreaming on mystical island of Bali Hai

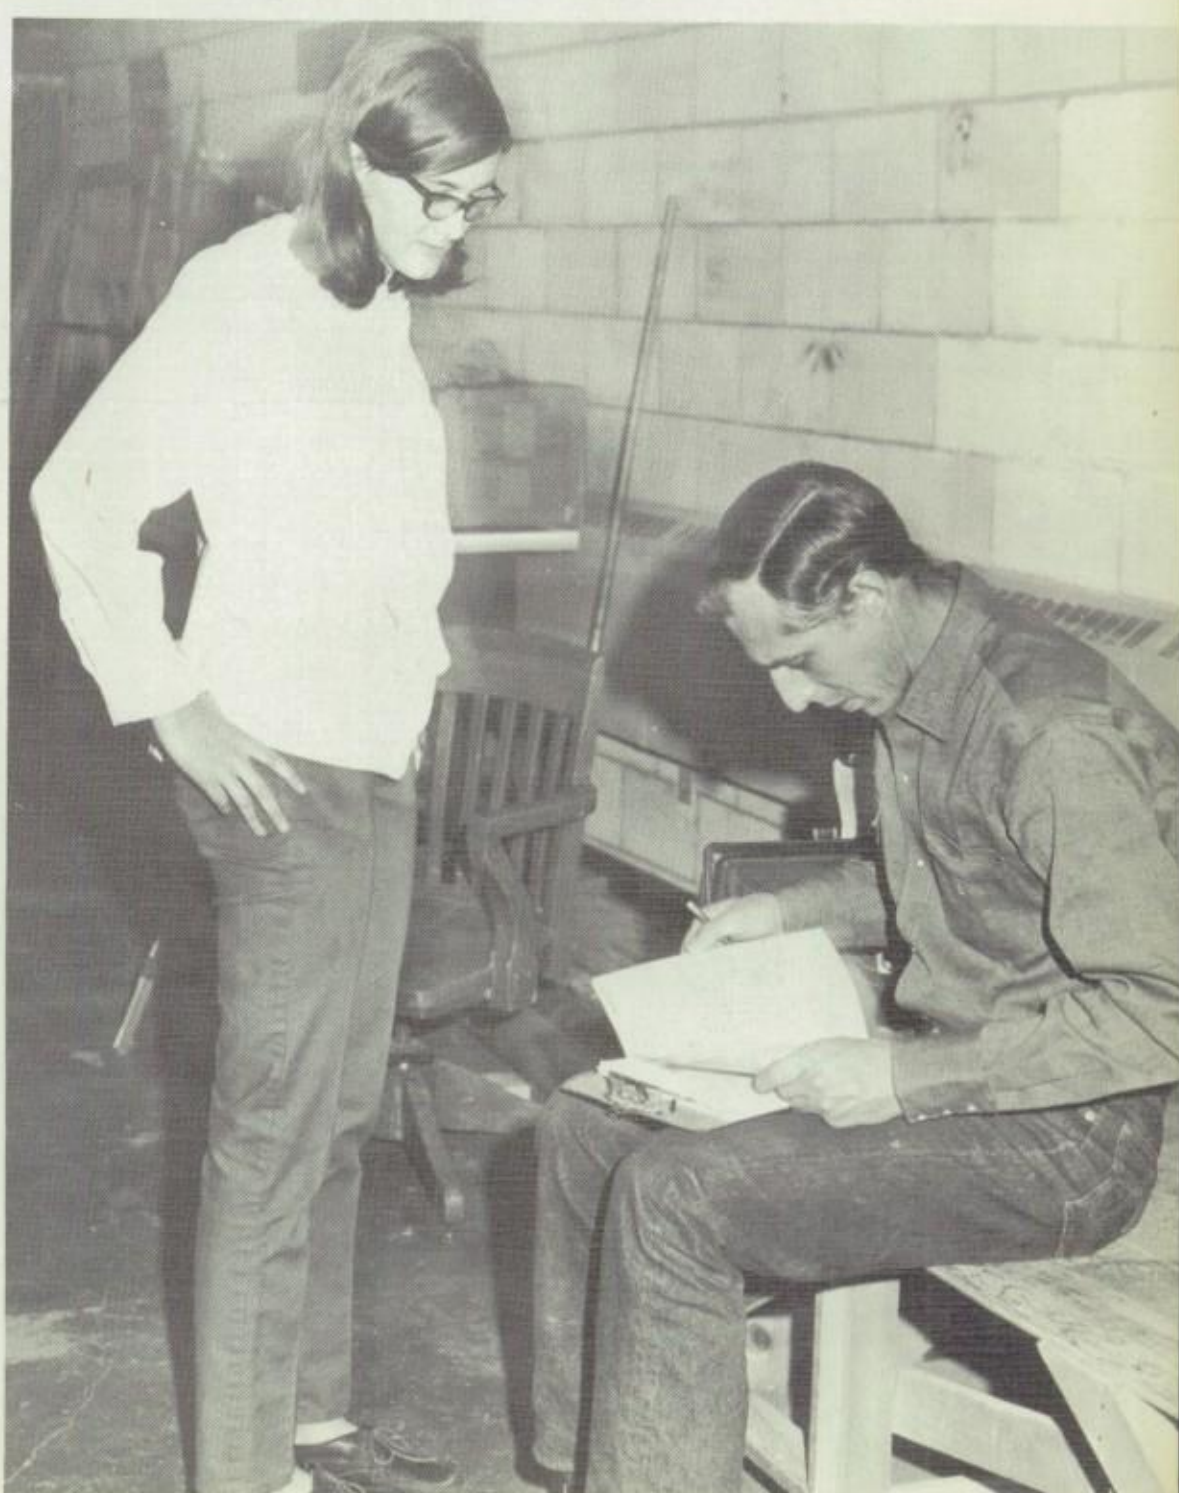

Ensign Nellie Forbush greets Emile de Becque after he returns from a spy mission for the Americans. Emile, a Frenchman, is in self-exile on the islands with his children Colleen Cook and David Allen.

Tom O'Brien, Ben Johnson, and Stewpot, Steve Jones, whistle to "There Ain't Nothin' Like a Dame" in front of the ever-present ditty box.

Mr. Wasden checks out technical plans with student director Freda Walling.

Taking quite a chance drinking a glass of wine are Winston Smith, Dennis Davis; Julie, Jackie Streeter; and O'Brien, Bill Blake. Make-up plays a large part in the production of a play. Rick Weatherman, Kit Jennings, Becky Jacobson, Mike Hinman, Donna Hitt, and Colleen Cook put on a new face.

Drudgery is an unavoidable part of life in 1984. Winston Smith, Dennis Davis sews alone at home.

George Orwell's 1984 Is This Our Destiny?

Julie, Jackie Streeter, becomes angered at Big Brother's anti-government speech being broadcast over the telescreen and Dennis cringes.

The Senior Class Production of George Orwell's 1984 displayed what life may be like by that year.

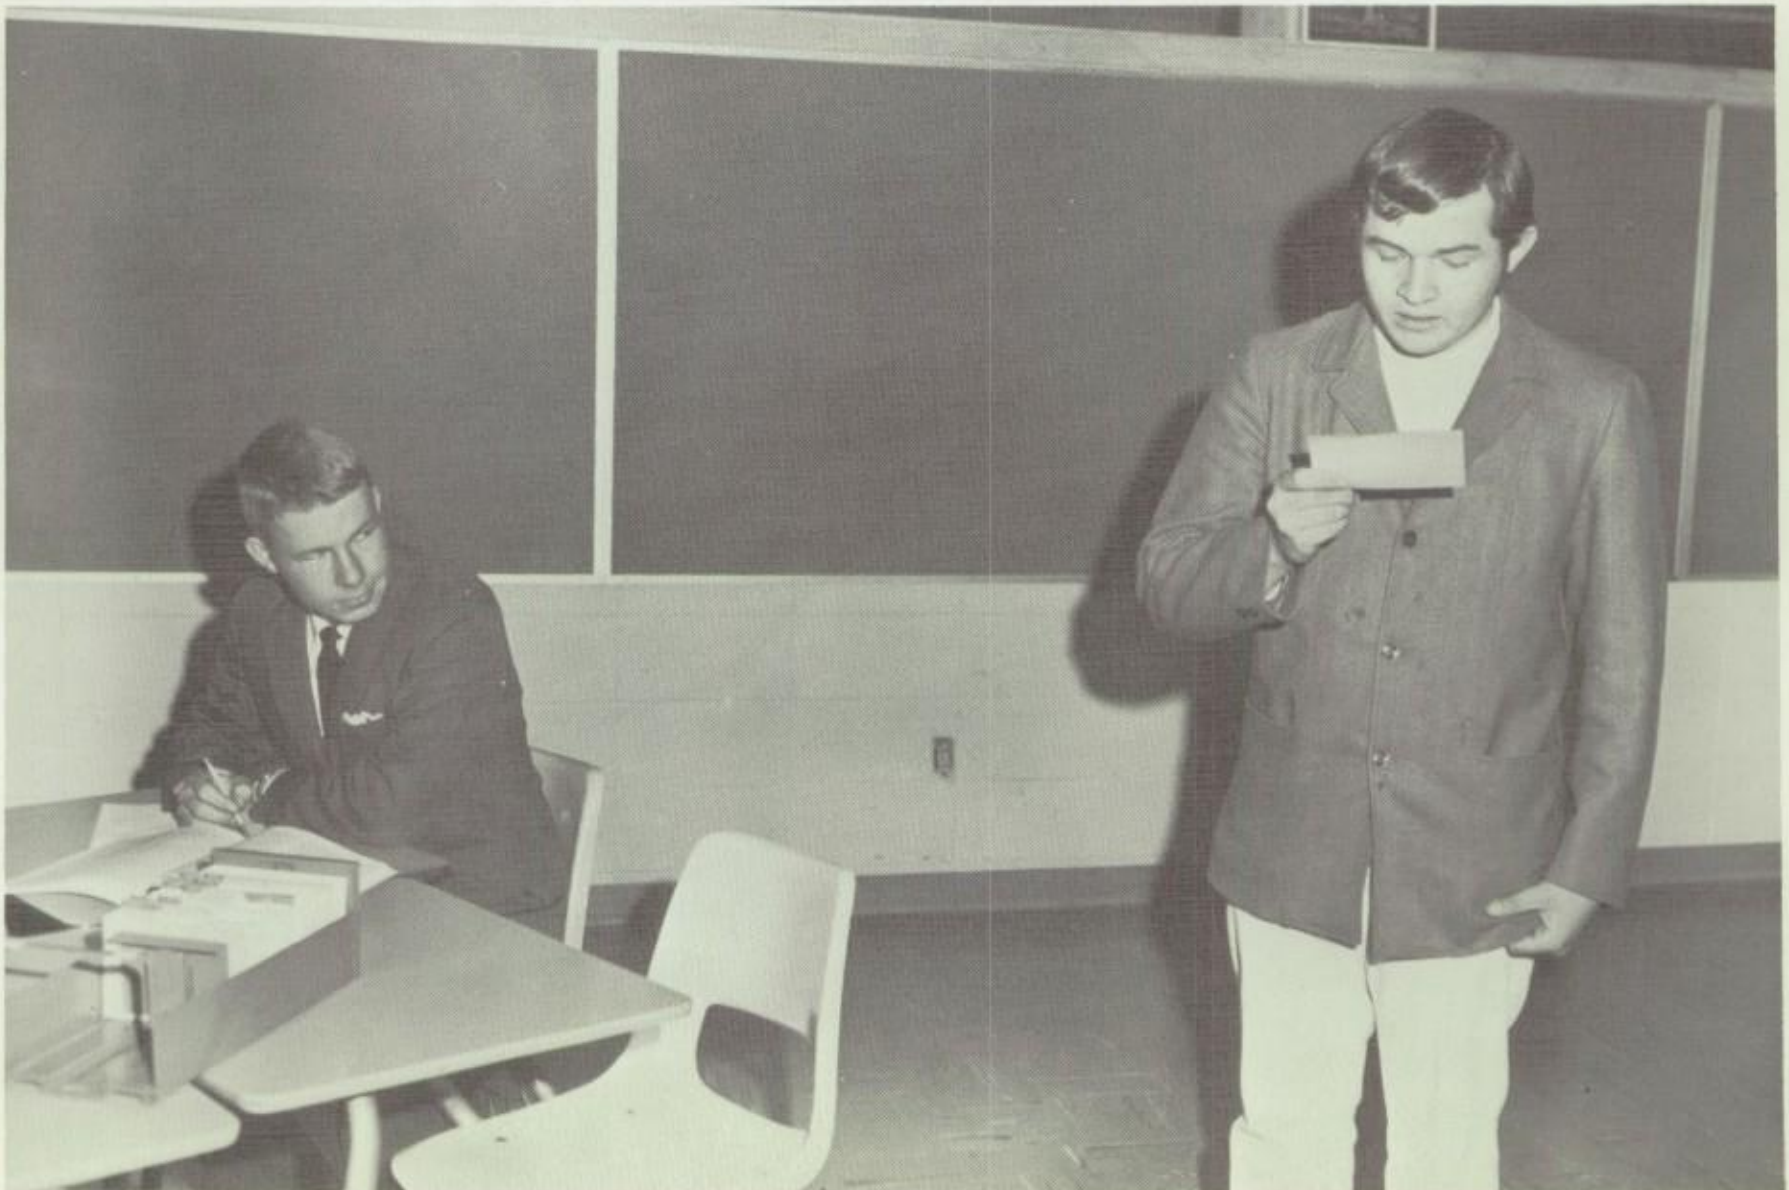

The play was a stark reminder that the way of life we are leading may end in stale, meaningless distrust and hatred.

At left, the coffee vender, Colleen Cook, distributes 1984 style "victory coffee" to Syme, Mike Hinman; Parsons, Freda Walling; and Winston Smith, Dennis Davis.

Peaceful Demonstration Through

More time is spent on research than on the debate itself. Speech Club president Dennis Davis and Mike Kopriva are shown during a research period.

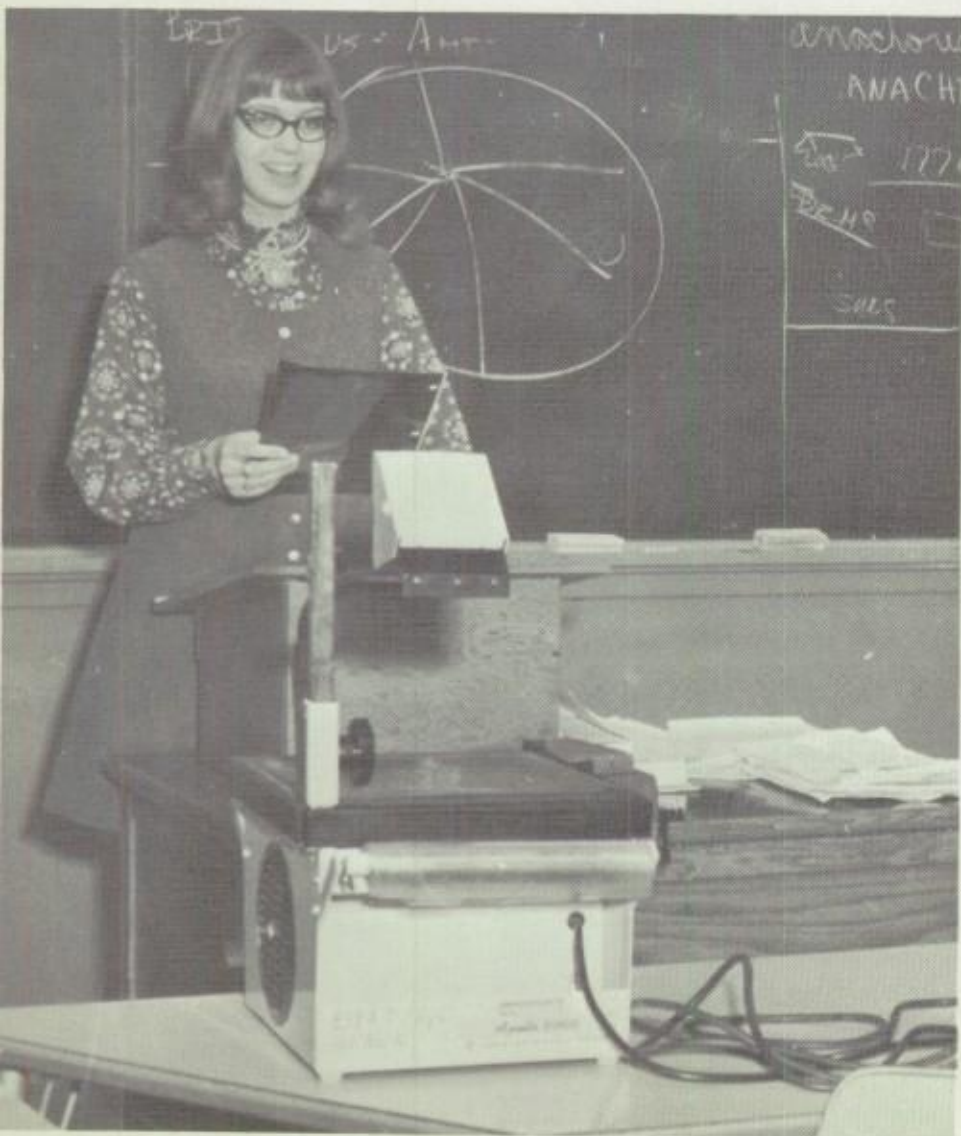

Much practice is involved prior to a meet. Here Bob McCormick and Greg Gerard work over a debate.

Speech and Debate

Curtis Johnson displays an expression of demanding work while researching.

Eileen Kopriva appears confident as she gives the First Affirmative Constructive Speech at the Riverton meet.

Lou Margrave smiles enigmatically while she interprets Poe's "The Raven".

Resolved: That Congress should prohibit Unilateral Military Intervention in Foreign Countries was the debate question. The question is chosen not only for debate worthiness but also for timeliness.

State Speech Meet was held in Casper April 17 and 18. Mike Kopriva received a Second Place in Panel Discussion.

While the band plays "Up, Up, and Away," twirlers, Nancy Bolmeier, Laurie Johnson, Maggie Rodriguez, and Annette Hadden, add to the effect of the half-time show by waving balloons.

Pop Group Rates

The Powell High

School Pop Group under the excellent direction of Mr. Joe Pinney made itself known throughout the Basin during the '69-'70 year. These talented musicians sang for such organizations as the Rotary, Does, Kawanis, and Lions. They performed at the Pep Club Banquet, National Honor Society initiation, at a meeting of the Big Horn Banker's Association Pageant. They also received an invitation to have an exchange concert with the University of Montana. At festival, the Pop Group put on a fine performance and received a superior rating. Although they couldn't get away from interrupted many practices, the group still proved to be one of the best performing groups in the area.

Oh for the life of a Freshman English class. Looks of surprise, uncertainty, and embarrassment are shown on faces on the second day of Freshman Initiation.

"Will I ever make it through?"

"Catch me if you can" seems to be the look Bonnie Sanders gives to cameraman Greg Taggart as she heads up the first flight of stairs.

CLASSMATE INJURED

Lisa Ray, Freshman class president, was involved in a one-car collision March 13. Lisa was a passenger in the car driven by Lee Maiden of Cody.

Funds were set up for both critically injured youths in their respective towns.

The Powell Youth Center sponsored the first fund drive for Lisa and proceeds went for doctor bills and flowers. The Freshman Class started another fund, which was soon joined by the rest of the student body, to purchase a tape player and a special tape.

A community fund is now set up for Lisa. She is making progress and will return for her Sophomore year.

Riding the ranks of the sophomore class are President Jay Hand, Vice President Don Lewis, Secretary Jason Harrington, Treasurer Evan Buchan.

Janette,
 So a nice person who endured better
 one year, now your ready for Hitler! Anyway, we can't forget Mr. Bea either, seeing how he actually liked Freshman, even though it may not mean us! So good luck in everything and try to be good yet have some fun. After all we only have three more years to live here in grand ole PSHS! Love, Bev '73'

Jean.

To a real great girl whom I admire very much. Hope you always have the best of luck in everything (boys)! Hope you get what you want of life, because you deserve the best possible. Be Good to all the boys & don't break too many hearts! Remember all the fun times we've had in Church & school. Don't ever let your friends down!

May God Richly Bless & Keep You Always!!!

Love,

Dear,

Well, what an honor! I get to sign your annual!!

Wow! Really tho, I'm glad, cause now we can say all these nice things in paper that would remind you of spoken.

You're awfully nice,

Dean: awfully sorry.

But the world needs

more nice, empty people like you.

Let God have first place in everything,

no matter how hard it may seem at the time. We love will make everything fall in place. He's the truest friend you can have.

Love you,

Carlie

MACE

Dean, You're a real sweet kid. Always stay straight & good go far.
Teressa

Dean,
To a great kid whom I've had a lot of fun with in the past two years. Always stay sweet no matter what happens.
You always have what you want and I know you will go far in the future.
Lots of luck
"73"

Jean,
To a really cool
Kid. Keep your neat personality and you will go to the top.

Good luck in every thing you do. Hope you always get what you want.

Love
Maileene 73.
